Dear Beloved Intercessors,

In 2006 large numbers of people came to Christ. There was much eternal fruit because Christians boldly shared their faith, during outreach events and in quiet spots when one person shared the good news of Jesus Christ with another person.

When soldiers went to war in World War II to rescue Jews who were being held captive, they fought for their physical freedom. When we host outreach events, or share our faith as God prompts us, we are going to war to release captives from spiritual darkness. Our adversary does not want to turn them loose. It is a spiritual battle best won through and following the fervent prayers of dedicated prayer warriors who believe God is able to deliver.

"For He delivered us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins" (Col. 1:13-14, NASB).

Much of the work leading to so many receiving Christ was done through your faithful prayers. As we begin a new year, please pray that 2007 will be a banner year for revival of Christians returning to their first love of Jesus, and for record numbers of people to enter the kingdom of light.

Thank you for continuing to pray for fruitful ministry across North America, and for faithful giving to the cooperative program - to keep SBC missionaries on the field.

For God's glory,

Elaine Helms

"He told them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field'" (Luke 10:2, NIV).

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR NORTH AMERICAN MISSIONS

The North American Mission Board's more than 5,300 missionaries are making a difference by changing lives in both predictable and unpredictable ways. While all Southern Baptists share the call to spread the gospel and make a difference in people's lives, our North American missionaries have taken their call to share a step further.

They are reaching out to all kinds of individuals from drug addicts to people living in poverty to the homeless to immigrants, and to ordinary people living a life without Christ. Their call and our support allow them the privilege of devoting their time and energies to sharing the gospel.

The suggested week for Southern Baptist churches to observe the annual Week of Prayer for North American Missions is March 4-11, 2007. This year's theme is Change Your World. Our missionaries rely on the prayer support of Southern Baptists, and are encouraged and empowered in their ministries through prayer. They are dedicated to sharing Christ and seeing people come to know Him and rely on Christians to pray fervently for the lost to hear the gospel and accept Christ as Savior.

As you pray for the work of our missionaries, pray also for this year's giving to Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. The goal is $57 million, 100 percent of which goes to directly support missionaries and their ministries. This offering is essential to keeping and growing an incredible force of missionaries on the North American mission field.

The featured missionaries are listed on March 4-11 in this issue. To learn more about the Week of Prayer missionaries, and how the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering is used to support their work, visit www.AnnieArmstrong.com.

One hundred percent of gifts to

SBC Day of Prayer for Revival and Spiritual Awakening Wednesday, March 7, 2007

The day of prayer for revival and spiritual awakening is a day for believers to join the psalmist in asking God, "Will you not revive us again, that your people may rejoice in you?" (Ps. 85:6b, NASB). It is a day to allow the Holy Spirit to examine closely one's motivations and attitudes about following Jesus Christ. It is a day for personal and corporate repentance from sin.

In advance of the day, print the prayer guide found in the Church Implementation Guide on the NAMB prayer Website, www.namb.net/revivalbrochure, and give out to church members. Lead them to pray in one accord for revival in your church and spiritual awakening in your community.

Pray together corporately on that day, seeking God's forgiveness of sins and a renewal of faith.

Join with other churches in your association to come together for prayer and renewed commitment to Jesus Christ.
