Dear _____

I was thinking about our Sunday School class and how in our country we have the freedom to meet and open the Bible together. Do you ever think about the millions of people who live in nations today where this is not allowed? We have this freedom and this privilege. If we don't use it, we may lose it! I'm On Mission To Share Jesus. See you Sunday.

Next Sunday is On Mission To Share Jesus Sunday, and everyone who comes will receive a special gift. Y2K is less than four months away and our church wants to help us all get ready. Will you consider dedicating the five Sundays of this month to Jesus and try for PERFECT ATTENDANCE in Bible study and worship? Why? To honor our great God and His Word. Show your love. Do it for Him! See you Sunday.
