

Episode 6: Reckoning with Race

Discussion Guide:

- What is your perspective on how the church can best understand and resist racism today?

- What does it say about the gospel when we see examples of people from different ethnicities united in their common faith and worship?

- What are some wrong turns Christians have taken in the past related to racial injustice? What are some current barriers to ethnic harmony among Christians?

- What do you believe the Bible says about racial injustice? What do you believe is the next step forward for you in this area? For the church you attend? For the church at-large?
