

Episode 12: Season Finale: It's Time to Rebuild

Discussion Guide:

- Historically, Christianity has been the majority religion in North America, but that is shifting and Christianity is becoming a minority religion. How does that shift present new opportunities to become better biblical Christians?
- How can personal discipleship and a commitment to learning more about what the Bible says lead to a different response than leaving the church for good when faced with moral failures and abuse of authority in churches?
- Trevin and Tim Keller discussed practical steps to move toward a renewed church. What do you believe is the most important first step toward renewal? Why? How can you engage in that step now?
- What is your current plan for studying the Bible? Are you committed to that plan to the same degree or more than other activities in your life? If not, what can you do to commit to growing in biblical wisdom?
- Evangelism. Discipleship. Community. It takes time to embed these things into the culture of a church. In a society that values instant gratification, how can choosing to be patiently steadfast in the pursuit of these disciplines reflect a commitment to renewing the church?
